

Laurie A. Robinson is the managing principal for Project and Vendor Management Advisors, LLC (PVMA, LLC) located in Houston, Texas. Ms. Robinson has over twenty-two years of large-scale program and project management, regulatory compliance, internal audit, government affairs and policy experience in the healthcare, housing, and disaster management and recovery industries. Her experience comes from holding positions at the Office of Inspector General for the Department of Health and Human Services, Ernst & Young's National Health Science Advisory Services Practice, Prudential Insurance Company of America, MFR, P.C. and Jefferson Wells International.

Since 2005, Ms. Robinson has managed over $1 billion dollars in federal grant funds as the project director and then project principal for several healthcare, housing, social service, and disaster management projects sponsored by federal, state and local government agencies. Such agencies included, but not limited to the Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA), Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), the City of Houston, Harris County Housing Authority, and the largest academic integrated healthcare delivery system in Texas.

Prior to becoming the Managing Principal for PVMA, LLC, Ms. Robinson was the lead principal for a Houston-based accounting and consulting firm where she led the firm's Consulting and Advisor Services Practice for the Houston, New Orleans, and Washington, DC offices. During this time she managed several disaster housing and disaster recovery projects across the country, a Medicare and Medicaid fraud unit, and FEMA reimbursement and accounting projects. She was also the key principal for the consulting practice's strategy and business development, and produced an average of $15 million in revenue per year during her tenure with the firm.

Beginning in 2005 to 2011, Ms. Robinson led the internal audit and external audit preparation for the City of Houston during its Hurricane Katrina and Rita emergency housing program developed for and resulting from one of the nation's largest national disaster in recent history. Such services included project management, internal audit, and FEMA compliance services. She continued the same type of services after Hurricane Ike, where she led and managed six disaster housing assistance programs (DHAP) and two (2) national programs for several housing authorities. She and her team assisted over 60,000 families displaced by the Hurricanes with housing, rental payments, and social service case management.

Prior to 2005, Ms. Robinson served as the Legislative and Regulatory Liaison for the Office of Inspector General (OIG), Department of Health and Human Services in Washington, D.C., where she conducted day-to-day legislative and regulatory policy activities and initiatives on behalf of the inspector general. During this time she provided technical assistance to the United States Congress and other government agencies concerning auditing requirements for Medicare Part D, Medicaid, Medicare Advantage, and the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP).

Prior to the OIG, she was a Senior Manager with Ernst & Young LLP in its national Health Sciences Advisory Services practice since its initiation in 1998 for both the Houston and Washington, DC offices. Ms. Robinson was also a legal analyst and regional associate compliance manager for Prudential Insurance Company of America where she assisted in the development and implementation of its nation-wide healthcare legislative and regulatory tracking process and Central Region's Compliance Program.

Ms. Robinson served as a member of the Greater Houston Partnership Healthcare Advisory Committee and serves on the State Relations Committees from 2007 to 2011, and a member of the 2005 Class for the Center for Houston's Future an Affiliate of the Greater Houston Partnership. In addition, Ms. Robinson served on the Executive Committee of the Houston branch of the NAACP in 2009-2010, and also served on the Executive Committee for the National Practitioner Data Bank from 2003-2004.

Her educational experience includes a BA from the University of North Texas, a post-baccalaureate certificate in advanced legal studies, and a MBA from the University of St. Thomas in Houston, Texas.

PVMA, LLC is a certified women-owned small business (WOSB) as designated by the Small Business Administration (SBA).